

743 $100 BILLS DISAPPEAR FROM EXPRESS PACKAGE

Mysterious Theft While Cash Is in Transit Across Continent Puzzles Police.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 5.—The theft of one hundred and forty-three $100 bills, $14,300, from an express package sent from Washington, D. C., to the Central National Bank of this city, is engaging the efforts of a number of special agents. When the package reached the bank here it was found to contain severely clipped magazine pages of the size and weight of the missing bank notes.

The bank notes were addressed to the Oakland Bank from the National Bank Redemption Office. Government officials of that office have notified the bank that the package was properly sealed and stamped before it was turned over to the United States Express Company.
Officials of the express company have assured the bank that the package could not have been tampered with before it reached Denver, and the representative of the Wells-Fargo Company, which is said to have relayed the package from Denver, has given the same assurance to the bank. Somewhere a counterfeit Government seal was used. Discovery of the theft has been kept secret several days.
